

Primary 2a –

‘Wonderful Work’ from last week and a message to you all!

Hello again Primary 2a! I can't believe that this is the final week of our school term and our time in Primary 2 together! It has been such a strange final term!

I just wanted to take this opportunity to say how proud I am of you all and your families for your responsible and resilient attitude over the last few weeks. You have done a fantastic job of home-learning – I have absolutely loved seeing and hearing about all of the amazing things that you have been doing! Thank you for your hard work, patience and commitment to learning and ‘growing your brains’! Your parents and carers (and sometimes brothers and sisters!) have done fantastically as stand-in teachers! Thank you so much to all of them!

So, for the final time, let's see who our ‘wonderful workers’ were from last week -

This week it was lovely to receive a letter from Iman and some photos of her baking! Her spiral shortcake biscuits looked delicious! She shared them with her friend Maryam! Iman has kindly shared the recipe with me and I can't wait to bake them! Thank you Iman!

I am so proud of the work you have all been doing in Epic! Over the last 10 weeks you have read over 350 books! Tremendous work Primary 2a! Congratulations to Jessica,

Iman, Sophie, Lacey and Nadia who have all spent some time on Epic this week and read or looked at books! Over the past 10 weeks, particular recognition goes to the following – Iman who has read 21 books, Jessica who has read 72 books,

Lacey who has read 24 books, Logan who has read 24 books,

Sophie who has read 26 books and Nadia who has read 184 books!

I am so impressed with this hard work and commitment towards developing your reading skills! Very well done!

I also received some photos from Alex this week who has been very busy at home! He has been completing some measuring work and creating bar graphs! I also loved this photo of Alex with a huge block of ice! How amazing Alex! I bet that was very cold to hold onto!

I have been so pleased to see so many of you still logging into Sumsdog and trying out one of the challenges that we have set for you! This week the Edinburgh competition continues! And Mr Odie is in the process of working out the winners from our school competition last week! Congratulations Thomas Mc, Coady, Sophie, Niamh, Lacey Nadia, Anthony, Tyler, Alex and Logan who all spent some time on Sumsdog last week - I have awarded you all 200 bonus coins! I wonder what you will spend them on?

Finally, I received some lovely photos from Jonah who has had a very busy week! He has been on a dinosaur hunt – and look what he found! He has also competed The Lion King experience work with his sisters – what an incredible job they have done! I am amazed with this work and so proud of you!
